

A Conversation with the Community
From Free to Captive to Slave: How People Became Cargo in the Atlantic Slave Trade

Sponsored by:
The African American Studies Program

October 19, 2010

6:00 – 7:30 pm

UNCG, Elliot University Center

Claxton Room

Discussion will be led by

Dr. Colleen Kriger

Please visit our website at uncg.edu/afs

Or find us on Facebook

Dr. Colleen Kriger has been a professor in the History Department at UNCG since 1993 and is an affiliate of the African American Studies Program. She teaches courses in African History and has conducted research in Nigeria, Great Britain, Belgium, Congo, South Africa, and Zambia. Dr. Kriger received her M.A. and Ph.D. in African History from York University in Toronto in 1992. Her current work is a social and economic history of British trading forts on the Guinea coast in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.