

The African American & African Diaspora Studies Program Presents:

Black History Month Events 2020

Monday, February 3rd

BLACK HISTORY MONTH KICK-OFF *

EUC Suite 062 | 12pm

Please join us for our Black History Month kick-off event featuring pizza, drinks, and fun activities, such as Black History trivia quiz bowl. All are welcome.

Tuesday, February 4th

WHAT BLACK PANTHER TAUGHT ME ABOUT OUR INNER GORILLA: THE SHAPE OF HUMAN ANIMALITY TO COME

Graham 212 | 3:30pm

Dr. Kim Ruffin, from Roosevelt University, will lead a conversation as a part of the Harriet Elliott Lecture series. Dr. Ruffin is the author of Black on Earth: African American Ecolotery Traditions.

Monday, February 10th

GET READY FOR CACE WORKSHOP **

Curry 240 | 11am

This interactive workshop is designed to prepare students to present at an academic conference. Facilitated by Erin Harrison and moderated by Dr. Cerise Glenn Manigault.

Tuesday, February 11th

RADICAL WRITING WORKSHOP

EUC Azalea | 6pm

This workshop is designed to prepare students to write and perform spoken word pieces for the Literary Café and beyond. Facilitated by D. Noble.

*In collaboration with the Office of Intercultural Engagement

**In collaboration with the Speaking Center

***In collaboration with Department of English

****In collaboration with the Department of Geography, Environment, and Sustainability

Additional information can be found on our website: <https://aads.uncg.edu/>

Friday, February 14th

DOUGLASS DAY ***

MHRA 1305 | 12pm

In this nationwide event celebrating the legacy of Fredrick Douglass, students, faculty, and community members from across the country will collaborate to transcribe previously unpublished writings from Black historical figures.

DRAPETOMANIA: TRACING THE LIBERATORY PRACTICES OF BLACK PLACEMAKING ****

Graham 106 | 3:30

Dr. Latoya Eaves, from Middle Tennessee State University, will lead a discussion about her recent research on black and feminist geographies.

CACE 2020

Tuesday, February 18th

LITERARY CAFE

Virginia Dare Room | 6pm

Come listen to spoken word performances about creating paths to a resilient, creative, and limitless future. Facilitated by D. Noble.

Wednesday, February 19th

RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS, LUNCH, AND WORKSHOPS

EUC Multiple Rooms | 10am

Attend our day-long conference events on the theme of "Connections and Collaborations Across Disciplines and Communities." CACE will feature presentations from students and faculty from UNCG and other universities. Register here

Thursday, February 27th

CONVERSATION WITH THE COMMUNITY

SOE 114 | 5pm

Dr. Hewan Girma will lead a discussion on the significance of the 1896 Adwa victory in Ethiopia's battle for independence against Italian colonization.